

Virtual Innocent Child Care Training

Build better relationships with the children and families in your community

Training Description:

Innocent Child Care (KCF: I, IIc, IIe, III, and CDA 2,3,4,8)

A free, 4-part intensive workshop that helps child care providers deepen their relationships with the children and families, especially children and families of color, in their care.

*Innocent Child Care is based on Alexs Pate's relationship building methodology as outlined in his new book, The Innocent Classroom: Dismantling Racial Bias to Support Students of Color (ASCD 2020).

- Develop practical strategies for working collaboratively with the children and families you serve
- Develop skills that will allow you to enhance the culture and climate of child care programs, decrease disciplinary issues, and end disciplinary disparities
- Learn to promote the social and emotional development of children and improve relationships with families
- Earn 8 in-service hours*
